

Jason Champion Christmas Decorating, Coldwell Banker Style

By Ed Bertha

A special Coldwell Banker gathering held at Barbara Ackerman's "Johnson Estate" listing on Longboat Key afforded me the opportunity to meet Jason Champion.

The event was a collaborative showcase between Coldwell Banker's Luxury Division, Previews® and Champion to stage a dining room. This wasn't your normal dining room staging. This was deck the dining room out for Christmas while keeping a modern and scaled look. The result was an elegant holiday staged dining room made over by Champion with a classy and elegant feel that can last through the holiday season.
