

Anna Kournikova's Sunset Island Home Volleys Onto The Market

By Ed Bertha

Ever wondered how a professional tennis player/celebrity/girlfriend to Enrique Iglesias lives? Well if you have $9.4 Million you can find out and soak up the Miami sun in the home of the blonde beauty sports star, Anna Kournikova.

Her 6,600 square-foot, 7-bedroom, 8-bath ivy-covered, waterfront home sits on prestigious Sunset Island. It might not have a tennis court, but the outdoor living area has everything you would need to relax like a celebrity — even your own private sauna. The home boasts a covered entertaining area with a barbeque, heated pool and Jacuzzi surrounded by a coral rock deck and of course a large dock on 156 feet of sparkling waterfront for easy yacht and boating access.

Visitors can also receive star treatment in the 2-story guest home featuring a separate living space and kitchen on the first floor, and spacious suite on the second floor.

Tennis anyone?
